

RETURN OF SUP'T FORNEY FROM THE MOUNTAIN MEADOWS.—J. Forney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, in a note to Governor Cumming, announces his arrival at Fillmore, on the 27th of April, with sixteen children, survivors of the Mountain Meadows Massacre." He proposes to leave the children at the Spanish Fork Farm, until he can secure more comfortable quarters at or near this city, where they will remain until the Commissioners arrive who have been appointed to receive and restore them to their friends.

The Indians in the southern portion of the Territory are reported to be quiet.

The military command detailed as an escort for Paymaster Prince, were a few miles south of Fillmore, on the morning of the 29th.
