Brigham Young's Definice.

A dispatch from Salt Lake Only states that Brigham Young preached in the Tabernacle there on Sunday. sermon justifying the Monatan Meadows Massacra, on the ground "that the Gootiles had killed the original Mormon Prophet. Jos

"that the Gootiles had killed the original Mormon Prophet, Jos Smuth, and had driven the Mormons from Museum and other States by force of arms. He concluded by defring any power on carth of the half to conclude the half the conclusion.

defying any power on tarth of 16 hold to everthrow his Church, and assured his hearers that the Mormons would continue their practices and dot the whole of Utah with their temples." In view of this mons would continue their presides and dot the whole of Utak with their temples." In view of this audacious defiance, not only of the United States, but of humanity, it may well be asked how long the Government proposes to tolerate Briedem Young? This sermon appears to be a deliberate propose.

Young? This sermon appears to be a deliberate avowal of his personal responsibility for the Mountain Meadows Massero, and as deliberate a justification of it. We shall not weste time in position out the delense set up by the heary old secunded who back squeen time in pointing out the monerrous nature of the defence set up by the heary old scoundred who backsques the prophetic character in Ulab, and whose success is one of the most humiliating evidences in existance of the low intellectual condition of thous-

whose encours to one of the most humiliating esidences in existence of the low intellectual condition of thousends of excelled human beings. But when an imposion, who is also a chief of 'assesses, and whose record is crimeon with innocent blood, gots up in the pulpit and thus stories in his infamous of mes, at the time that be defice the anthorities of the United Blates it really seems to us that he innocentionally reclaims a more!—to the effect that the excention of John D. Lee was in no sense an atonoment for the Mountain Mandows Massacre. After the Mountain Mandows Massacre. Instally swenged uptil the villain who intherized and directed it has met he fate accorded by law to all murleres, and unless the Government leares that Brigham Loung should imp down to Mormon posterity as a oftenigod, whose upprecedented powers enabled him to dely all earth-ly authorities, it is time some viscor.

ofemigod, whose upprecedented powers embled him to dely all earthif authorities, it is time some vigor.
The measures were taken to bring chim to the gallows be basso accodauthy merited. It is a burning disgrace to American civilization that such a wretch lives to-day, but when we consider that he not only lives, but lives as head of the Mormon Church, and lives to dely the Government and the nation, the orimical inegligenes which has rendered this possible seems almost inconceivable.

- Sucramente Union, 1st.